Attorney David Gabor Named a Fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America

Boston, November 27, 2012 – Marcia Wagner, Managing Director of The Wagner Law Group announced that David Gabor, Of Counsel to the firm, was selected by the Advisory Board of the Litigation Counsel of America for a Fellowship in the society. The Litigation Counsel of America (LCA) is an honorary trial lawyer society that recognizes highly qualified, experienced trial lawyers. The invitation-only society is comprised of 3,500 members, less than one half of one percent of all the lawyers in the U.S. Its members are selected to recognize excellence among American litigation and trial counsel across all areas of the bar. Fellows are evaluated based on accomplishment in litigation, both at trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. The number of fellowships awarded is deliberately kept at a certain limit. Fellows are usually at the partner or shareholder level, or are independent practitioners with several years of experience.

David Gabor heads The Wagner Law Group's Employment, Labor & Human Resources area. He has over 20 years of experience in litigation, employment and business law. Mr. Gabor is a recognized leader in the employment law field. He represents clients in litigation, the negotiation and drafting of contracts, handling compliance issues, the creation of corporate infrastructure, the drafting of policies, training of employees and leading companies towards organizational excellence. Mr. Gabor has received a number of awards. He was honored as a "New York Super Lawyer – Metro Edition" for 2010 and 2011. The Nassau County Bar Association Labor and Employment Law Committee recognized him for his Distinguished Professional Achievement in 2008. Mr. Gabor is a frequent speaker at bar associations, professional and community organizations, and webinars on topics related to employment and business law.

Mr. Gabor will host a webinar – Preparing for the Unexpected: 10 Things Managers Need to Know. He has been answering questions from clients about steps that organizations can take in anticipation of severe storms, power failures or other significant events. He has also been talking with clients about how employees should be paid when an organization has to unexpectedly close. The free 30-minute webinar will take place on Wednesday, December 5, 2012 at 4 PM ET. For registration details, please access: <https://www1.gotomeeting.com/register/382859081>
