Wagner Law Group on the Hill

For the Wagner Law Group, 2017 marked the start of a new year and a new office location — in the nation's capitol. The firm's first office in Washington, D.C. opened its doors at the start of 2017, and plans to celebrate on May 11, 5 p.m. - 7 p.m. at The Metropolitan Club of the City of Washington.

The firm's founder, Marcia Wagner, tells 401k that the move comes at a perfect time considering how many regulatory changes surround the industry.

"The time was right to open up the D.C. office," Wagner says. "This is our first footprint into the nation's capitol."

The D.C. location already has a team of four — two partners, one associate, and a paralegal/secretary, and Wagner says they are likely to hire more people in the near future.
