The Wagner Law Group Names John Sohn as Partner

Boston, January 4, 2011 – Marcia Wagner, the Managing Partner of The Wagner Law Group, A Professional Corporation, announced that John J. Sohn has been named a partner effective January 1st. “John’s breadth and depth of knowledge regarding tax-qualified plans, the interaction of the investment and securities laws and practice with ERISA, and executive compensation is truly remarkable,” says Ms. Wagner. “He is an excellent addition to our law firm and clientele.”

Sohn, who graduated from Harvard Law School, advises on all aspects of executive compensation and employee benefits plans, with specialized expertise in fiduciary and investment-related matters under ERISA. “In the last year that I have been with The Wagner Law Group,” says Sohn, “I’ve had a great opportunity to work with an extraordinary group of attorneys and professionals who are among the best in our field. The Wagner Law Group has been blessed with many of the most distinguished and knowledgeable ERISA experts in the country.”

Prior to joining The Wagner Law Group, Sohn was previously with Legg Mason, Inc., where he was responsible for all aspects of ERISA Title I investment matters, including advising on investment management and advisory arrangements, prohibited transaction exemptions, the Investment Advisers Act and all types of financial products and services.

Founded in 1996 The Wagner Law Group, which specializes in ERISA, employee benefits and executive compensation law, has 16 attorneys and is among the largest ERISA boutiques in the U.S. with clients in more than 30 states and several foreign countries.
